MOND CITY ITEMS.

EDITOR OF HOLT COUNTY SENTINEL:

Dear Sir: As it is a long time since I have written to you about our town, I shall try to give you a summary of the news of Mond City.

Our town is improving nicely, as there are several new buildings nearly finished, and several in progress.

Our new hotel is an honor to the place, and Steve and his amiable lady are trying to make the guests and borders very comfortable; they have about 10 boarders.

The stores of our town are doing a splendid business, and we shall soon have two new stores.

Our school under Mr. N. Carr, is doing very well, it is only a shade that so good a school as ours is, with so many scholars and so good a teacher, must be held in the old log house, as the plan to build a new one has failed through.

Mr. Carr teaches a subscription school of 50 scholars, and I must say, his school is an honor to the Oxford College, Ohio, where he has been educated. The scholars all like him, and is his principle to gain the affection of the pupils, and by so doing, make them attentive, has proven a success. We visited his school, and heard the classes recite spelling, arithmetic, geography, grammar, &c., and could not help to be well pleased with the result.

As shining lights of the school, we mention Misses Anna Jackson, Nancy Hoblitzel, Louisa Herron, Ella and Clara Frazer, Masters H. Jones, Walter Thomas, Paul Dean & James Tracy.

Our town was happy to think they were incorporated, but they find themselves mistaken, as they had not published the city ordinances, and a young fast man of this place, a young fellow named Jones, was heavily fined, but requested the authorities after paying the fine to remit it, which they promptly did.

Mr. Shelly is holding a series of religious meetings during the week, but it seems not much interest is manifested.

Prof. Ewald, now of your town, was here Saturday teaching his music class. We are glad to hear he is doing well at our school.

Charles Barnes is practicing law, acting notary public and real estate agent.

Henry Shutt, of the Fillmore mills was in town on Saturday and gave us friendly call at our "sanctum."

We were very glad to find him restored from the injuries of a fall down an icy hill during which he dislocated his left shoulder. He has not yet fully recovered the use of his arm.

Oakley Morris, one of the well-to-do farmers of this county, has just returned from the Des Moines region, Iowa, whither he had been to take a look at things. He says the farmers movement is a power in the Hawkeye state.

—Mr. Wilson McKnight and Ernest F. Weller, two leading citizens of Clay township, Holt county, were in the city last week and showed their smiling countenances at our "sanctum."

—John Stephenson who has been to see his relatives in Fremont county, Iowa, returned to his home on Monday.

—Mr. Archer Hammon, T. H. Parrish, T. W. Collins, Rev. Thornton, the Sheriff and lady took the northern bound train on Monday—most of them bound for Rock Port.

—The Rev. Mr. Chamberlin, who died recently at Graham, Mo., had a policy of $7,000 on his life in the Continental Life Insurance company.—St. Joseph Gazette.

—Judges Collison, Skeels and Anderson were in town this week attending to the business of the County Court.

—Mr. Cheskusk, Indian chief, accompanied by his interpreter, Mr. H. C. Jones, paid our county a visit week before last. They were on a visit to their brethren, the Iowas, Nemaha, Sac and Fox, west of here.

—The farmers near Minton's School House held a routing meeting last Saturday, and a resolution passed to join the grange. Deputy Brown was requested to come over and organize them. So said Ed Randolph.

—Dr. J. N. Johnson, of the Rush Bottom neighborhood, was in town on Tuesday attending the County Court.

—The bell for our new School House has arrived, and having been examined by a number of our most prominent citizens, is pronounced a good one. It is a swing bell, and weighs 550 pounds. The Board is experiencing some difficulty in hanging it, as the doors to tower are too narrow to let it in.

—The signal was given by one of the men saying that Shriden was a gentleman, and being answered from the opposite side by some one telling him he was a bar. But just as they were about to "close," Judge Miller and Sheriff Wilson sprang in between them and kept the brawlers apart.

Marion Lansdown is finishing the store building of Davis Grannell, and as soon as he gets through, will begin a large addition to the store of Jewell Peter & Co. He is gay and festive still, and is painting landscapes and scenery.

This spoiled one of the most brilliant feats which they were to perform.

The soldiers were paid off and discharged about nine o'clock. About ten the Commodore locked arms with the two Admirals—Bumps and Swiggett—and marched up and down the street, with Sergeant Quick as vanguard and Corporal Worley as rear-guard, all singing. "We won't go home till morning," while the soldiers were prostrated in various shapes around them.

This was the last scene and everybody went home satisfied.

In the morning the officers visited the "swamp Angel" and fired a farewell salute. U. L.

A Proprietor in the County.

A red-headed, sandy whiskered gentle man, about fifty years of age, visited a number of people last week. The burden of his speech was, that he is possessed of the spirit of prophecy and has been chosen of God to reveal to the people of Holt the great events of the near future. His message is couched in rhyme, and is of the import that the world will surely come to an end in three years. He further said that Israel is returning to Jerusalem and that the ancient city of God would be the seat of great glory and all ages. When it was suggested by one of the farmers that he might possibly be propounding under a delusion and that his message might prove a humbug, he got mad and showed considerable ill-temper. Poor prophet, that who can doubt his mission. We suspect that this prophet is an escaped inmate of some insane asylum.

We are offering most extraordinary bargains in all kinds of goods adapted to this trade; decidedly the greatest bargains ever offered to the citizens of Holt county. Be wise and buy your goods from ZOOK & THOMAS, 28th Street, City, Mo.

Bugle Hunt.

Mr. Hezekiah Smith wishes us to announce that there will be a big wolf hunt on the 29th of January, 1875, the hunting ground to be the Nedaway hills.

The hunting party will meet in Riverville at 8 o'clock in the morning, and bring with them their "shooting irons," sporting dogs, bugle horns, &c.

Congressman from this district, the State Senator, the Representative as well as all the other "sure shots," are expected to participate. Come one come all!

Schott Cabinet.
